

Remembering Me

Diane Chamberlain

To be published by Mira February 2010 $32.99

A father's dying wish.

A husband's shocking suicide.

A daughter's inexplicable silence.

Laura Brandon's promise to her dying father was simple – she would visit an elderly lady she had never heard of before, who remembers nothing except the distant past. Visiting Sarah Tolley seemed a small sacrifice.

But from this visit comes a series of tragedies – her husband kills himself, witnessed by their 5 year old daughter Emma. This shocking scene renders Emma unable – or unwilling – to talk at all.

Frantic and guilt-ridden, Laura seeks the help of a man she has met only once before, the only man who may be able to help. A man who doesn't know he is Emma's real father.

Together, with only the help of an old woman's fading memory and the silence of a traumatised child, they must unravel a tale of love and despair, of bravery and unspeakable evil. A tale that's shrouded in silence... and that links them all.

Praise for Diane Chamberlain's Remembering Me:

Relentless suspense and intriguing psychological insight. Publishers Weekly

... as real and emotional as a novel can be. LiteraryTimes

ABOUT DIANE CHAMBERLAIN

Diane Chamberlain is the author of 18 novels published in more than eleven languages. Although the thematic focus of her books often revolves around family, love, compassion and forgiveness, her stories usually feature a combination of suspense, mystery and intrigue. Diane received her master's degree in clinical social work from San Diego State University. Her work previous to writing included being a hospital worker, a psychotherapist working mostly with adolescents. As one of her Japanese readers wrote to her, "You make me believe life is beautiful even if it is also full of pain and rage."

FOR MORE INFORMATION

PLEASE CONTACT DM CPRmedia

Tel: 02 9550 9207 / mob : 0412 818 071 / E: info@dmcp.com.au